

Summary of participant who were recruited, and those who withdrawals?

Total Recruited

80

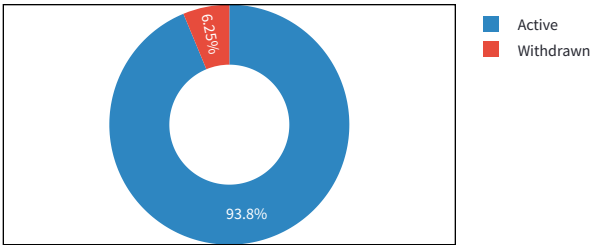

Still in Study

75 (93.8%)

Withdrawals

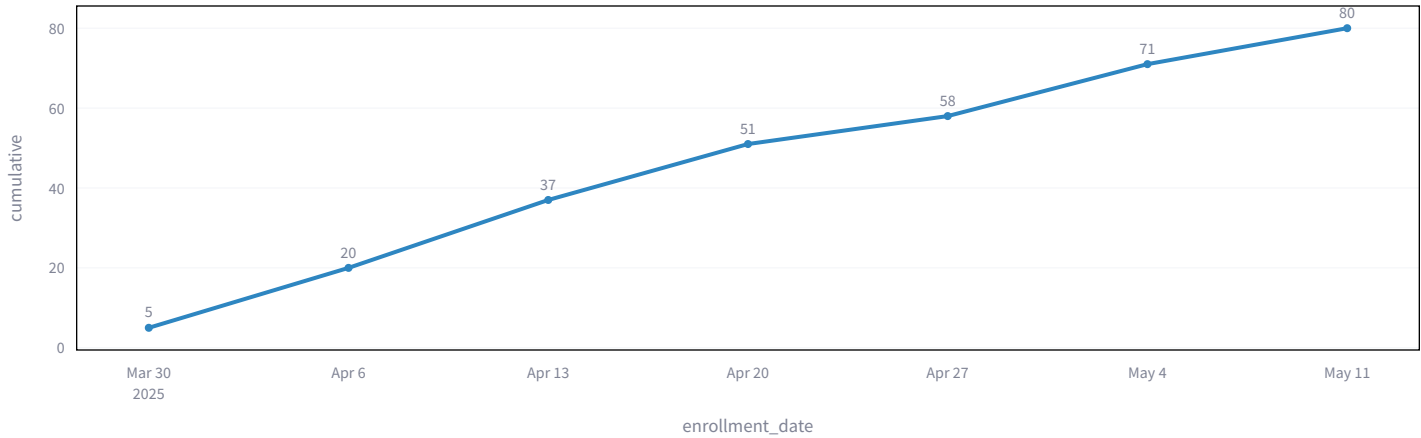

5

Participants: Active vs Withdrawn

Most participants are still in the study. Withdrawals are shown in red.

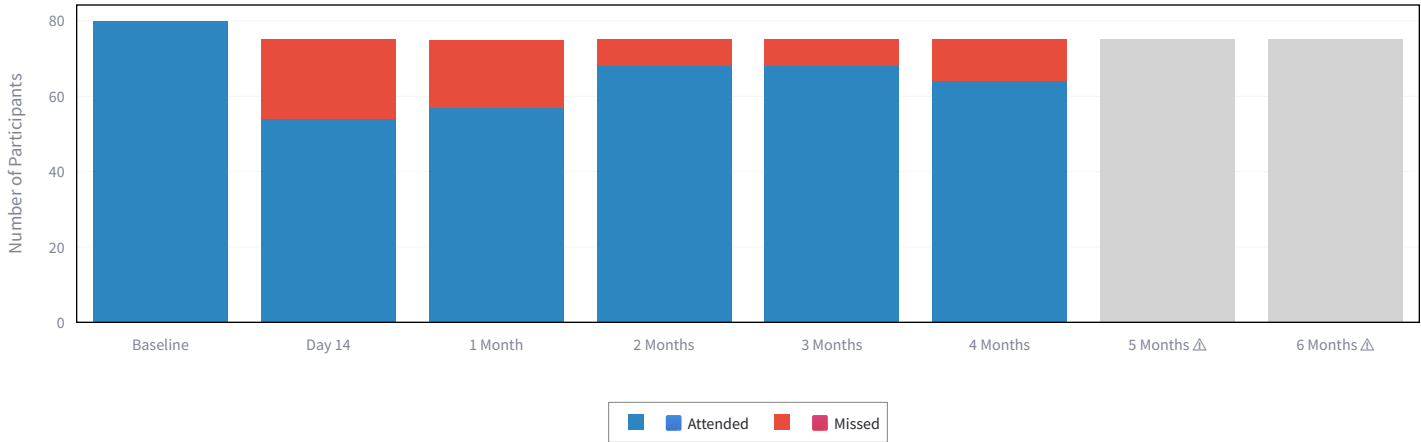

Recruitment Over Time (Weekly Totals)

Recruitment steadily increased over time, shown here by week.

Did Families Come Back for Follow-ups?

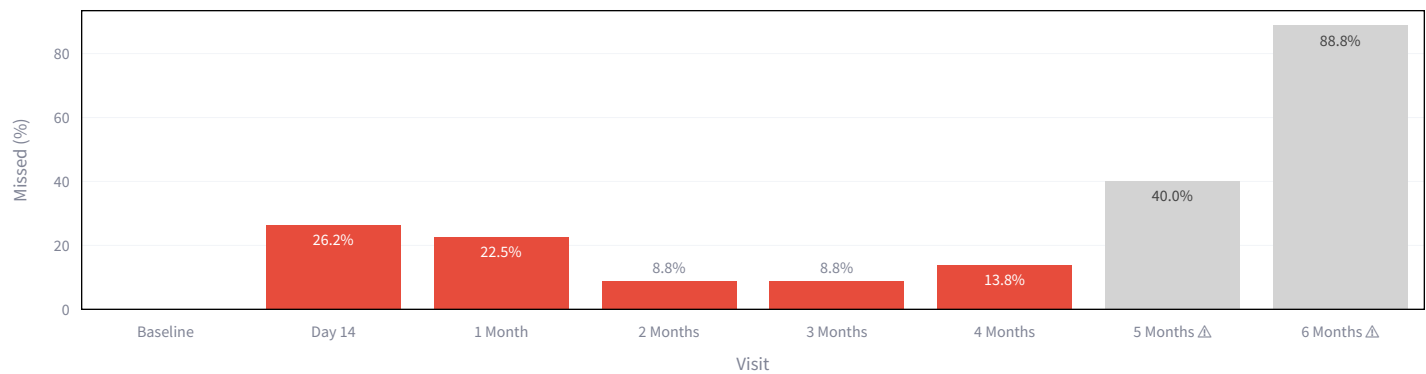

Checkup Attendance at Each Visit

Attended visits were fairly high.
Missed visits are relatively few.
Months 5 & 6 are still ongoing and therefore greyed out.

✖ Missed Visits Over Time

Share of Missed Visits by Timepoint

Months 5 & 6 are ongoing and greyed out.

📄 Key Takeaways

- A total of 80 participants were recruited.
- 75 participants are still active in the study (93.8%).
- 5 participants withdrew.
- Families showed strong commitment to early follow-ups.
- The highest number of missed visits occurred at Day 14 (21 missed).
- Months 5 & 6 are still ongoing.

📌 Reasons for Withdrawal

- 3 people withdrew because the child died.
- 1 people withdrew because other reason: Participant requested withdrawal due to the father refused the participant participation into the study.
- 1 people withdrew because other reason: Husband's decision.